

PRESS RELEASE

Contest « Your dream planet »

In partnership with the Alliance Internationale pour les Objectifs Du Millénaire pour le Développement, the organization « Une idée de génie », whose mission is education for citizenship wants to sensitize people to the sustainable development and international solidarity.

As part of the international solidarity week and the 25th anniversary of the signing of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, the organization organizes its 2nd exhibition PLANETIS, and a big contest “Imagine your dream planet” to sensitize citizen, companies, communities...

The contest is open to everyone, child, teenager or adult from the 20th June to the 5th November 2014.

You have to imagine your dream planet, drawing, painting, poem, novel... you can do what you want. A visual of the finished work will be sent to the organization.

A ranking by age bracket will be made, and the winners will see their work at the exhibition PLANETIS on the 19th November, at EVIAN in Haute-Savoie (France). Numerous prizes will be given.

A selection of the received works will be published in a book. 3000 copies of this book will be printed. Disseminated at the United Nations, the further objective of this book is to mobilize the Heads of State and remind to every government their international obligations, a few weeks from the 2015 date of maturity.

Find the contest rules and more information on www.une-idee-de-genie.fr

To learn more about this contest, please contact :

M-C DEBOURG

Présidente

Une idée de génie

1820 avenue de Milly-NEUVECELLE

BP 105

74501 EVIAN LES BAINS CEDEX

contact@une-idee-de-genie.fr

www.une-idee-de-genie.fr